

Second Annual Summer Resort & Travel Graphic

Sixteen Pages Part Two

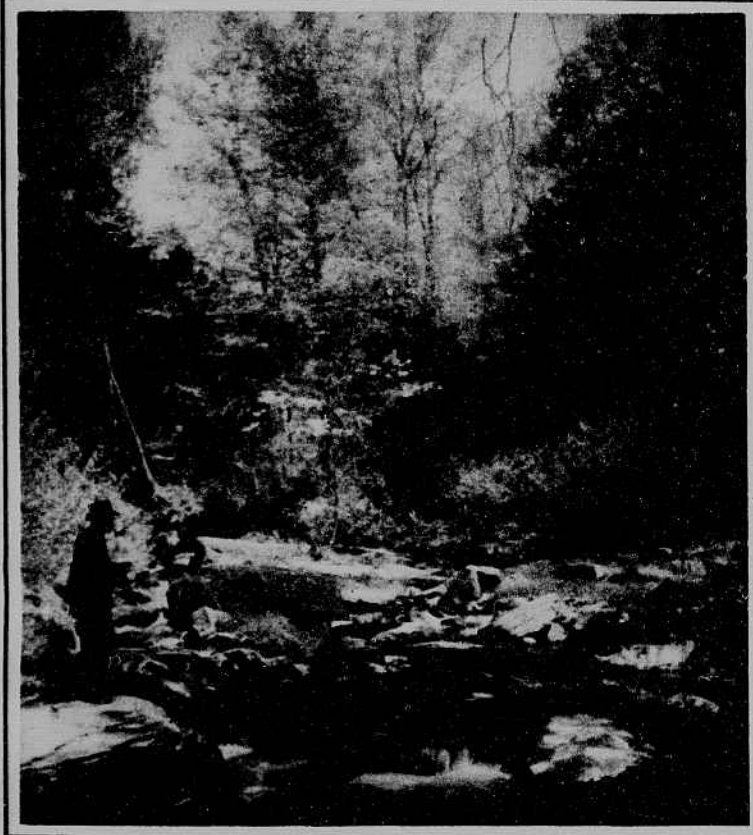

Motorists in the White Mountains.

A picturesque New England landscape, with Mount Jefferson in the background.

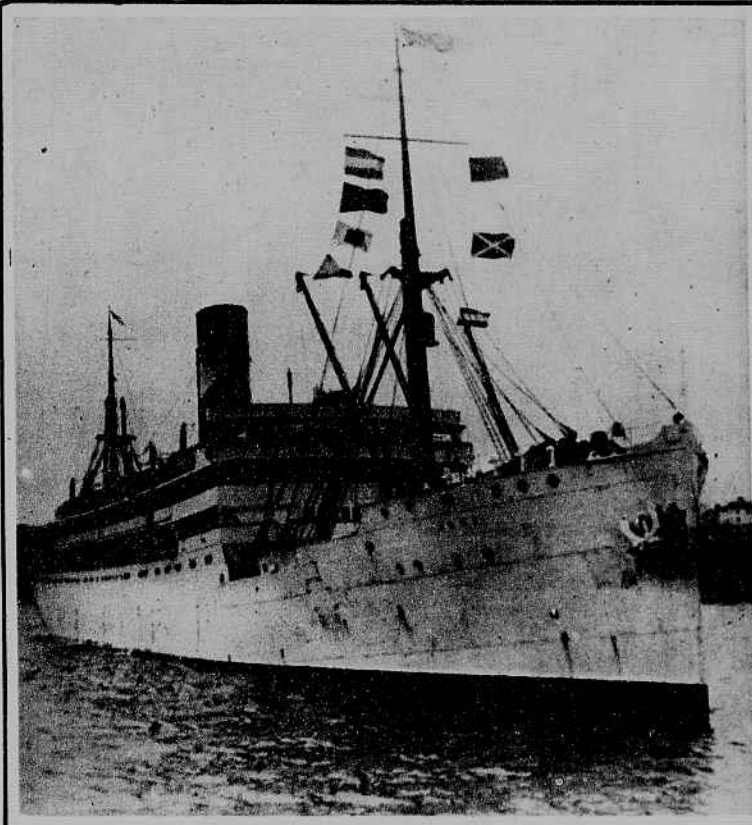

The crowd of interested spectators indicates that a golf tournament of importance is on.

An ideal vacation pastime—fishing in the Catskills.

The steamship Rapids King safely navigates Racine Rapids.

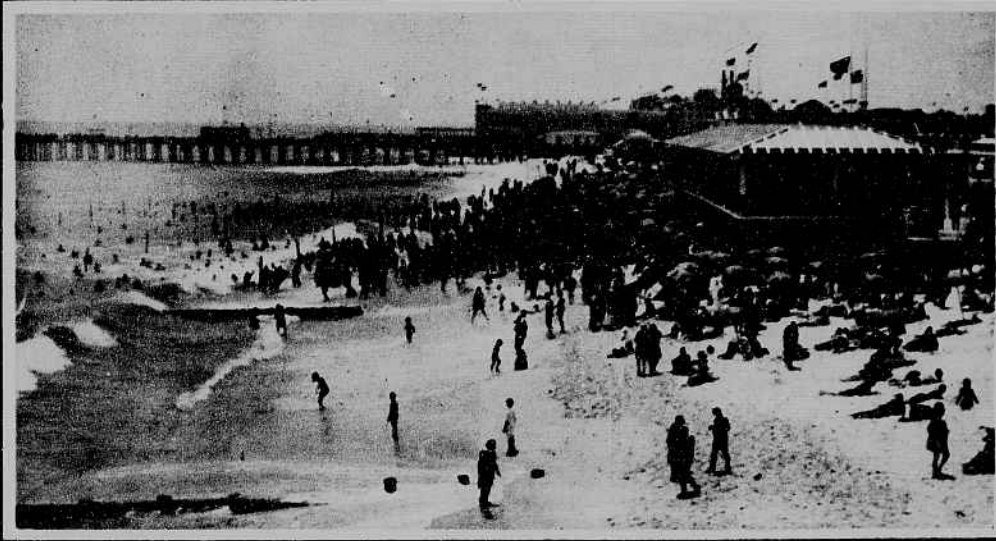

The S. S. Ulua is the first new passenger steamer to enter the Port of New York since the close of the war.

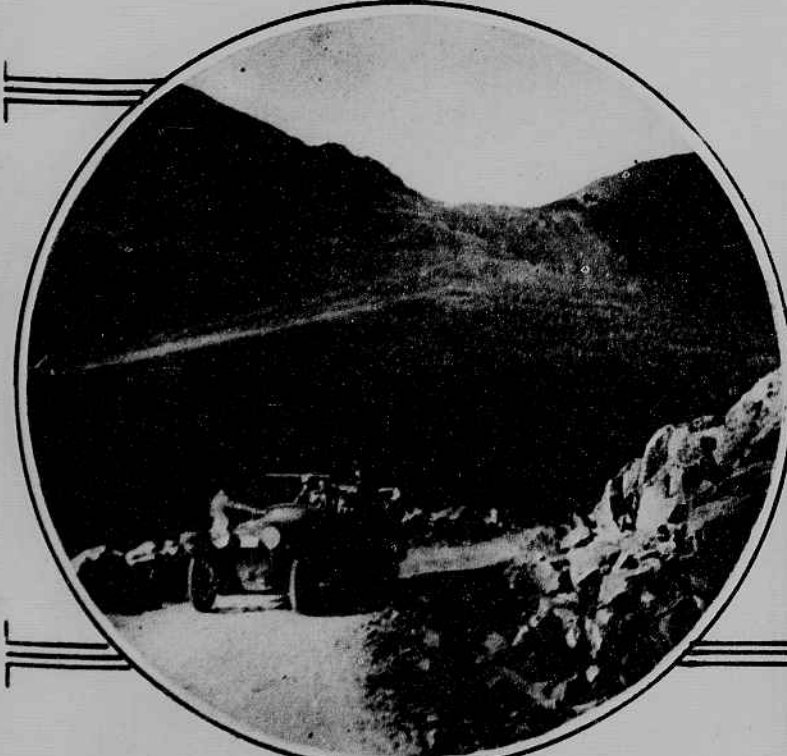

A full day's catch in the lakes of Canada.

Enjoying an out-of-doors fox-trot on the lawn of a New England golf club.

Asbury Park beach, the week-end haven of refuge for the New Yorker.

The vacation motorists pause for a picnic lunch in the mountains of New England.

Catskill daisies—in two varieties.

The eighteenth hole—golfing in Maine.